

Summary of State and Territory Border Controls and Exemptions (as at 3 April 2020)

State and Territory Border Controls		Exemptions	Further Information
ACT	No border controls at this stage	NA	https://www.covid19.act.gov.au/
NSW	No border controls at this stage	NA	https://preview.nsw.gov.au/covid-19
VIC	No border controls at this stage	NA	http://coronavirus.vic.gov.au/
NT	Arrivals in the NT from interstate from 11:59pm 1 April 2020 will be escorted to hotels and monitored for 14 days of quarantine. For arrivals after 3 April 2020, you will need to pay for quarantine costs.	Exemptions apply for individuals engaged in specific work with specific skills. Read more about the exemption categories . An exemption may be granted on compassionate or medical grounds. Find out how to apply for an exemption .	https://coronavirus.nt.gov.au/ https://coronavirus.nt.gov.au/community-advice/border-controls
QLD	New restrictions will apply from Friday 12.01 am Friday 3 April 2020 which will only allow Queensland residents and those considered an 'exempt person' to cross the border. Restrictions preventing interstate FIFO workers (except for certain positions in certain resource industries) apply from 11.59pm Saturday 4 April 2020.	If you meet the criteria for an 'exempt person' detailed here then please consider applying online for a Queensland Entry Pass to avoid delays at the border. Even if a person is a resident or an exempt person, they must self-quarantine if they have travelled in the last 14 days overseas, or to a COVID-19 hotspot in Australia, which will be decided by the Chief Health Officer and published on the Queensland Health website .	https://www.qld.gov.au/about/newsroom/queensland-border-restrictions https://www.health.qld.gov.au/system-governance/legislation/cho-public-health-directions-under-expanded-public-health-act-powers/border-restrictions
SA	All persons arriving in South Australia from outside the state are required to self-quarantine for a period of 14 days, unless they are an "Essential Traveller". Anyone entering SA may be stopped by police at checkpoints and Essential Travellers will be required to provide evidence of their status.	"Essential Travellers" are exempt from the requirement to self-isolate on entry to SA. For further detail on essential travellers, see here .	https://www.pir.sa.gov.au/emergency_management/covid-19_and_primary_industries https://www.police.sa.gov.au/sa-police-news-assets/front-page-news/direction-released-for-travel-into-south-australia
TAS	All "non-essential" travellers arriving in Tasmania, including Tasmanian residents, are required to enter mandatory self-isolation for 14 days in government provided accommodation on arrival in Tasmania. Travellers will not be permitted to leave the port of entry to travel to private residences or previously arranged accommodation.	Exemptions to the requirement to self-isolate apply to "essential travellers" which are outlined here . Exemptions can be sought on the basis of unusual, undeserved or disproportionate hardship by completing an Application for Essential Traveller status . Those meeting "essential traveller" status are required to follow social distancing rules.	https://www.coronavirus.tas.gov.au/ https://dipwe.tas.gov.au/Documents/Tasmanian%20Border%20Restrictions.pdf
WA	Temporary closure of WA border - from 11.59pm, on Sunday, April 5, people no longer be able to enter WA without an exemption. Western Australians currently out of the state and wish to return should do so immediately. People arriving from interstate before 11.59pm on Sunday, 5 April 2020 will be ordered to self-isolate for 14 days.	Exemptions currently being finalised and will include people who perform essential services.	https://www.wa.gov.au/government/document-collections/covid-19-coronavirus-state-of-emergency-declarations
